

FINAL WORK ON HALE'S BAR DAM

Gigantic Power Development Practically Complete.

River Has Now Risen Over
Twelve Feet.—
Owners Safe.

The following is a summary from the Chattanooga News of the work now being done at Hale's Bar lock and dam, the completion of which is practically finished. The next thing is to get a market for all this gigantic energy, and it seems that somebody has got to spend some money in this section to do so.

"The coming of Thomas E. Murry, one of the prominent electrical engineers who has been connected with the Brady interest in the construction of the Hale's bar lock and dam, marks one of the final touches of the completion of the gigantic project. In company with B. T. Bart and other officials of the Chattanooga and Tennessee River Power company, he will inspect the work at the dam.

"At the present the actual constructive work on the dam is practically complete. Two openings remain, which in accordance to government restrictions, allow a flow of 5,000 cubic feet of water per second to pass through to assure navigable conditions below. This may be stopped within a few minutes' time by dropping steel gates over the opening of the up stream side. Besides this, nothing remains to be done but the clearing away of the cofferdams, constructive bracing, railroad tracks which have been used to facilitate the transportation of materials to the working positions on the dam, and the removal of other preparatory constructive work not included in the dam proper. Two or more weeks will probably be necessary to complete this task.

"The injunction suit to insure a bond for the land which will be covered by the overflow, will not delay the opening of the locks and powerhouse. The work has already progressed too far to be stayed, and with the next rain the water will be forced up and over the brink of the dam. At present there has been a rise effected of more than twelve feet in advance of the normal stage of the river at this point.

"The supplying of the $250,000 bonds to cover the damages done by the rising water will act as a protective guarantee to assure the remuneration of landholders in the territory that is doomed to be flooded.

"Supervising Engineer Crowley who has been employed at the dam during the construction, left Thursday afternoon for New York City. Mr. Crowley was sent to New York City by Jacobs & Davies by whom he was employed at the lock and dam. He will there be occupied in the construction of the new Brooklyn subway, which is to be built by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company. He will not return to the lock and dam."

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS ACCOMPANIED TEAM

SEWANE, Tenn., Oct. 17.—Rev. W. H. DuBose, faculty director of athletics at the University of the South, Sewanee, accompanies the Varsity team to Chattanooga tomorrow and will go with them also to Dallas, Tex., on the 25th, when the team plays the university there. While in Chattanooga Sunday he will preach in the Thankful Memorial Church, St. Elmo, a large number of his friends there having expressed a wish that he should preach for them. His assistant in the work on the mountain, Mr. George Osman, will also accompany the team, having won a place on the football training table. Mr. Osman's regular visit to the Sunday school at Foster's Falls, eight miles east of Tracy City, will be made this week by Donald R. Ottman, of Sewanee.

I never was much of an admirer of ex-Governor Patterson, yet I have never looked upon him as a man without or void of strong convictions and a man without courage to advocate what he believed. Since his change of front on the liquor question I do not for a moment doubt his sincerity. I believe, further, prohibition has in him a champion second to none, and no man will be more aggressive in the cause than he. I hardly think the Mountain Herald can point to a single act of the governor calculated to put him on the insincere list or that his change was not honest, so I accept the change believing it was made in good faith and made from the best of motives. Men like Patterson often come to the light and when they do they have the courage of their convictions.

The meeting on Hobbs Hill is proving to be a failure and little interest is shown.

I heard the Altamont Mission's new preacher Sunday. He comes to the work as a student and expects to put in five days in the week going to Shook school in Tracy City. The mission this year will get little, if any, pastoral work.

The weather is cool, wet and disagreeable on the mountain, and rather rough on the hunters who are out in the Peak mountain country.

We are having fine cottage prayer meetings in the Elbow Hollow country and splendid order and good attendance.

Well, the advocates of religion on this mountain are not as aggressive as one year ago. There is too much selfishness or something else. People are too busy and times are too hard for them to attend church, so a full house is of rare occurrence.

We killed a hog and I've had square meals since Saturday. Got three more fine ones to kill later on.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Parson have returned to Oklahoma after a visit here of several months for the benefit of Mrs. Parson's health.

Well, our bootleggers are getting alarmed and the ones who order their booze are a little troubled over things. Some of them don't have a square meal but still they will let the bootlegger have their money, while their children cry for bread.

The Lost Day.

Tonight I know that I have lost
Somewhere between the far sunrise
And this the dark, a jeweled day
That God had given me to prize;
I lost it, for I failed to note
The tender beauty of the dawn,
I failed to breathe the sun-drenched flower
Before the sweet, wet dawn was gone,
I failed to turn my cheek to catch
The cooling breeze I needed so;
I did not pause to note the while
How wondrously the new leaves grow.

For all the day was full of cares,
I only looked me down to see
The briars that beset the way
To hold and fret and hinder me.
But now, tonight, O Lord, I lie
And see with weary, world-tired eyes
The tranquil splendor of the night,
The wonder of thy lighted skies,
And know some better thing is mine
Than this lost day—and I will go
No more forgetful of thy way
Nor walk no more with eyes cast low,
But looking—laugh and live and sing,
Knowing that thou wouldst have it so.

MARION HIGH DEFEATS BAYLOR

JASPER, Tenn., Oct. 18.—After holding the Marion County eleven for three and a half periods and carrying the ball three times practically to the goal line where it went over largely through poor selection of plays, the Baylor-Conts eleven went down in defeat here yesterday afternoon, 7 and 0. Dunwoody, with but a few moments left, grabbed a forward pass and ran fifty yards, eluding three Red and Gray tacklers. He scored a second touchdown. It was called back because of holding by the Jasper eleven. Baylor played a great defensive game, the line smashing play after play and opening continuously.

J. C. Martin has the record in this town for sweet potatoes, getting the biggest and best crop that we have mentioned.

Special to the News.

Ye writer was informed this morning that our old friend, Hop Kelly, is rapidly recovering from his late trouble, and will return home in a few days. We are certainly proud to hear the glad news for we all miss Hop in our social circles.

The leaders in our Sunday school are arranging to have a nice little Christmas entertainment at the Chapel X-mas Eve night for the encouragement of the little folks. We hope for them a grand success. William Griffith seems to be at the head of the affair, and is doing everything he can to work up a good interest in the matter. Will seems to be very much enthused in the Sunday school work.

Well, we have heard a great deal of talk about "Northerners" in the flat countries, but I think a "Southerner" struck us Monday and showed us its "white face". This (Tuesday) morning is a nice time to butcher a fat pig if a fellow had one.

Well, we are having some very substantial improvements going on in our settlement. Alvin Billingsley has erected a new porch to his residence and Mel Moore has refloored his porch and ceiling his kitchen and dining room. D. D. Lewis has got the repair work on his barn about completed. Dan has been enlarging his barn and now has a good large, roomy barn. Hurrah for our energetic boys. The late "tariff" bill has not stopped all the improvements as some argued it would.

Mrs. Mary Rankin and daughter, Bonnie, of Whitwell, have been visiting relatives and friends in our vicinity since last Thursday, returning home this a. m.

Our ex-Justice of the Peace Daniel Pitman, passed through our town this morning on his way down in the Shellmound settlement.

Ed Ross and John McNabb and son, Looney, passed through this morning on their way to Jasper.

Brother Morrison failed to meet his appointment last Saturday night and Sunday at Union Grove and disappointed several who went out to hear him. Being engaged in a protracted meeting down on Baptist Hill, we supposed was the cause of his non-appearance.

Willis Lewis attended the Sunday school at this place Sunday. Come again, Willis, as it has been quite a while since you were here and we are always glad to have you with us.

Andrew Lewis, son of J. D. Lewis, is attending the County High School at Jasper, and is always present when the roll is called. Andrew is a nice, bright, intelligent young man and will come out successful if no bad luck happens to him.

Well, as there has been no "new drinks" since the passing of the enforcement bill last Friday, and other newsw items are very scarce, I guess I had better quit for this time. Old Joe.

The Family Cough Medicine.

In every home there should be a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, ready for immediate use when any member of the family contracts a cold or a cough. Prompt use will stop the spread of sickness. S. A. Stid, of Madison, Mich., writes: "My whole family depends upon Dr. King's New Discovery as the best cough and cold medicine in the world. Two 50c bottles cured me of pneumonia." Thousands of other families have been equally benefited and depend entirely upon Dr. King's New Discovery to cure their coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Every dose helps. Price 50c and $1.00. All druggists.

Don't fail to get your corn, shuck, cob and all, converted into cornfeed, because to feed whole ears is a big waste. Crushing has been resumed at the Sequachee Mill, by Hill & Son, who want your trade. Bring only dry corn as wet corn cannot be crushed satisfactorily.

TO ASSIST IN GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

SEWANE, Tenn., Oct. 20.—At a called meeting of residents of Sewanee, held at the Otey Parish House on Saturday the 11th, to consider the invitation issued by Tracy City and Mont-eagle Boards of Trade to co-operate in the Good Roads movement, the following committee was appointed to represent Sewanee on the "Sewanee-Mont-eagle-Tracy City Highway Commission": W. H. DuBose, Joseph Riley, Thomas Hamilton, Telfair Hodgson and C. K. Benedict. The Commission will meet at Fairmount College on the evening of November 1st, for the purpose of organization and discussion of plans. It is probable that the work of a Board of Trade will be done through an already existing organization, the Sewanee Village Improvement Society, which has achieved much for the town in the past. Mr. Claiborne is the President.
